YOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Continuous work

After doing all the sorting and bagging and then seeing the bags leave the venue to be delivered to families who need them

Knowing that the items we sorted will be used by members of the community.

Rewarding experience and making a difference

Team building and giving back to those less fortunate

Teamwork and knowing that you are helping others

Very well organised. Lori and the team explained everything really well and we were able to create some value in a short time.

Knowing the packs will be appreciated by the recipient

Knowing where the clothes are going to and to who they are going to!

Meeting the staff who deliver the products to young parents leaving juvenile detention

IT'S THE LITTLE THINGS

Little Things for Tiny Tots (LTFTT) is a volunteer run charity, providing new and pre-loved essential baby items to WA families in need. They create New Baby Boxes filled with 'little things' to assist families care for their newborn such as nappies, wipes, clothing, blankets, and books. They distribute New Baby Boxes via their partners including non-profit support services, hospitals, and government agencies. They are committed to providing help and support for babies and their families in their time of need.

On a warm autumn day in May, a team of awesome volunteers from the Corporate Affairs team dedicated their day to help LTFTT sort and package donated baby items received from the community. The team were welcomed by LTFTT Volunteers Lori and Laura, who talked about the work of the organisation and the different types of baby boxes they have been able to distribute out to the community.

Then it was all systems go, with team members heading downstairs to wade through the donations, bringing them upstairs and distributing them around the room. The team were then tasked with sorting through the donations which included clothing, bibs, toys, blankets, nappies and more, doing an all-important quality control check and then adding items to their correct bucket or bag. Other tasks throughout the day included writing congratulation cards, packing boxes, putting together accessory bags, and helping organise areas of the storeroom.

As the day wrapped up, the team had successfully cleared out LTFTT's donation cage - which is an awesome achievement. It was a productive, rewarding, and enjoyable day, with the team also getting the chance to talk to staff from the Dept of Education, who are one of LTFTT's partners and were there to pick up some baby boxes for their clients. Thanks Woodside - we hope you all enjoyed your volunteering experience.
